

This is an issue of massive importance, and the public must be given the opportunity to discuss this, and have our opinions honored.

I urge you to postpone the vote until the public is made fully aware of the issue and has had an opportunity to be involved a decision that will dramatically impact our daily lives.